One day, Anna meets a mysterious stranger named Jude. Jude is a kind and compassionate man who helps Anna to open up about her grief. He encourages her to paint again, and he helps her to find her way back to life.

As Anna and Jude spend more time together, they fall deeply in love. However, their love is forbidden. Jude is married, and he has children. Anna knows that she cannot be with him, but she cannot resist his charms.

Anna and Jude's relationship is doomed from the start. Jude's wife is suspicious of him, and his children are hostile towards Anna. Anna is torn between her love for Jude and her desire to protect him. She knows that she must leave him, but she cannot bring herself to do so.

In the end, Anna and Jude's love is destroyed by tragedy. Jude dies in a car accident, and Anna is left heartbroken and alone. She returns to her old life, but she is never the same. The memory of Jude haunts her, and she is forever changed by their love.

Anna Stay in Bed is a beautifully written and deeply moving story about love, loss, and redemption. Cartez Augustus has created a haunting and unforgettable novel that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
