Thao Birthday Lunch is a beautifully written and illustrated cookbook that celebrates the life and legacy of Thao Nguyen, a beloved Vietnamese-American chef and restaurateur. The book features over 100 of Thao's most popular recipes, along with stories and anecdotes from her friends and family.

Thao Nguyen was born in Saigon, Vietnam, in 1958. She came to the United States in 1975, and opened her first restaurant, Pho Thao, in Seattle in 1983. Pho Thao quickly became a beloved destination for Vietnamese cuisine, and Thao became known for her warm hospitality and her delicious food.

In 2004, Thao was diagnosed with cancer. She continued to work at her restaurant until she was too sick to do so. She passed away in 2007, at the age of 49.

Thao Birthday Lunch is a tribute to Thao Nguyen's life and work. The book features recipes for all of her most popular dishes, including her famous pho, spring rolls, and banh mi. The book also includes stories and anecdotes from Thao's friends and family, which provide a glimpse into her life and her passion for food.

Thao Birthday Lunch is a must-have for anyone who loves Vietnamese cuisine. It is also a beautiful and inspiring book that celebrates the life of a remarkable woman.
